

What does Lob value?

Life at Lob is filled with pets, foodies, and friends

Especially on the Marketing team. You will be part of a team that prioritizes and values collaboration, personal development, and getting things done quickly and at a high quality bar.

Attention to detail

Checks output across browsers and devices.
Nothing falls through the cracks; no sloppy code.

Skilled front-end

Strong HTML, CSS and Javascript; ideally some background working in Webflow.

Communication

Strong communication skills, especially given you'll need to be able to walk through projects to many non-devs on the team.
